

Terms

When enrolling for the SNiC conference you agree to the following terms:

1. It is forbidden to bring self-brought alcoholic drinks.
2. At the SNiC conference it is strictly forbidden to bring and/or use soft and/or hard drugs of any kind. Violation of this rule results in a direct exclusion of attending the SNiC conference.
3. It is forbidden to participate in alcohol-related activities. The committee decides what constitutes such a game.
4. You are responsible for being on time for the travel towards the destination. The travel service will not wait.
5. The SNiC committee can not be held responsible for any injuries resulting from the SNiC conference.
6. Participants of the SNiC conference are expected to follow the local laws and regulations. Not following these local laws and regulations leads to a direct exclusion of attending the SNiC conference.
7. At the SNiC conference the SNiC committee is responsible, all instructions from the SNiC committee are non-negotiable and should be followed. In extreme cases not following the instructions from the SNiC committee leads to direct exclusion of attending the SNiC conference.
8. It is forbidden to make digital recordings of the talks held at the Conference. From most talks, SNiC will provide recordings and photographs of the event.
9. In all cases of possible doubt, the SNiC committee decides.
10. The SNiC committee and the Venue (Flint Amersfoort) reserve the right to refuse access to the event to any participant of SNiC for violation of (amongst others) the aforementioned rules. This decision is non-negotiable. By being refused access, one also forfeits access to the return trip by bus.
